Monday

6:30-8:45 PM

__New Testament Survey

(BI104/3 credit hours)

Lindley

This is the second semester of a systematic presentation of the books of the New Testament. It is designed to give the student an overall view of the New Testament revelation and bring important issues into focus.

__Ancient History

(HI101/3 credit hours)

Lindley

Early Civilizations—their origins, life-styles, economy, religion, and organization will be investigated. The Ancient civilizations that had contact with ancient Israel will be given prominence.

9:00-10:30 PM

__Acts

(BI202/2 credit hours)

Lindley

This detailed analysis will put emphasis on the formation of the church, the ministry of the Holy Spirit, and the missionary strategy of the apostolic church.

Tuesday

6:30-8:45 PM

__English Composition

(EN102/3 credit hours)

Evans

This is the second semester of a two-semester course. It includes basic studies in grammar, as well as written work in translation.

__Minor Prophets

(BI307/3 credit hours)

Sullivan

Set in historical context, major themes will be traced and exegetical problems discussed. Prophetic passages will be compared with other Scriptures in order to see the larger picture of God's redemptive purpose in the person and work of the Lord Jesus.

9:00-10:30 PM

__Cults

(MI302/2 credit hours)

Sullivan

The origin, history, and teachings of the principle religious cults found in the United States today will be studied. This study will lead to a Biblical basis for the refutation of their claims and methods of presenting the Gospel to their adherents.

Thursday

6:30-8:45 PM

__Greek I

(LA202/3 credit hours)

Dawson

This is the second semester of a two-semester course. It includes basic studies in grammar, as well as written work in translation.

__Apologetics

(BI405/3 credit hours)

Andrews

This course provides a Biblical foundation for a reasoned defense of the Christian faith. The two schools of Apologetics, Presuppositional Apologetics and Classical/Evidential Apologetics, are examined and contrasted. Defending Christianity against False Faiths is explored.

9:00-10:30 PM

__Theology III

(TH301/2 credit hours)

Andrews

This course offers a study of the work of salvation in its application to the believer, along with a study of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit.
