

Apologetics Course Online - Spring 2017

- Simulcast Thursdays 6:30 -8:45 PM
- Available on demand the following week
- January 12 – May 11
- $85 cost to audit course online

Apologetics is a reasoned defense of the Christian faith

“But in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense [Greek apologian] to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you, yet do it with gentleness and respect.”
(1 Peter 3:15)

Major components of the course

- A Biblical Foundation for Apologetics
- Contrasting the two schools of Apologetics (Presuppositional & Classical/Evidential)
- How the contrasting schools use evidences in defense of the faith
- Thomism critiqued (Classical Apologetics)
- Evidentialism critiqued
- The superiority of Presuppositionalism
- Defending Christianity against False Faiths

Instructor: Rev. DeLacy A. Andrews, Jr., Regional Home Missionary, Presbytery of the Southeast, Orthodox Presbyterian Church, has served as Adjunct Professor at Graham Bible College since 1995. He is a graduate of Reformed Theological Seminary and resides in Meadowview, Virginia with his wife, Debbie.

www.grahambiblecollege.com

(423) 968-4201

grahambc@btes.tv

Graham Bible College
PO Box 1630, Bristol, VA 24203